

The French-American Chamber of Commerce Dallas/Fort Worth

in partnership with the:

- British American Commerce Association of DFW
- Canadian Consulate General
- German American Chamber of Commerce
- Italy-America Chamber of Commerce of Texas, Inc.
- North Texas Commission
- Texas-Israel Chamber of Commerce

invite you to attend the 6th Annual Aerospace Industry Forum Growth Opportunities within the Global Aviation Industry

How to be involved in large global aircraft manufacturing programs both in the defense and commercial sectors

Presenting Sponsors

Thursday, September 22, 2011

Frontiers of Flight Museum - Dallas Love Field

6911 Lemmon Avenue - Dallas, TX 75209

Schedule of Events:

7:45 a.m. - 8:30 a.m. - Registration & Networking Breakfast

8:30 a.m. - 12:30 a.m. - Presentations, Panel Discussion and Q&A

12:30 p.m. - 2:00 p.m. - Networking Luncheon

~ ~ ~

Individual Ticket: $95

Corporate Table of (10): $800

Exhibitor Table: $500 - Includes table and two (2) tickets

Make Your Reservations Today Online at www.faccdallas.com or call 972.241.0111

Catered by Cacharel Restaurant

Keynote Speakers & Panelists

Stephen O'Bryan

Vice President

F-35 Business Development and Customer Engagement

Lockheed Martin Aeronautics

F-35 and the Global Aerospace Industry

Barrett Koch

Director, Aerospace & Defense Industry

Dassault Systèmes

Giulio Calvello

Professional Engineer (Italian Air Force Lt. Col. ret.)

F-35 Program Coordinator & Customer Liaison

Alenia North America

Alenia's Participation in F-35 Joint Strike Fighter Program

Representative from

Bell Helicopter, A Textron Company

Growing Global: Bell Helicopter's International Partnership Strategy

John R. G. Harlow

Business Development Director, Platform Solutions

BAE Systems

Moderator

Tom Henricks, Colonel, USAF (retd)

Vice President, Corporate Aircraft Analysis Planning, Inc.
(CAAP)

Former President of AVIATION WEEK and NASA Astronaut